

1920s silver target brooch set with blue and white square-cut stones

£45

REF: 4667

Description

1920s silver target brooch set with blue and white square-cut stones.

A target brooch, featuring circles, symbolises precision and focus. Often crafted with vibrant gemstones or enamel, it represents achievements, goals, or a sense of direction. Historically, it was worn to signify ambition or a keen eye for detail, blending style with personal significance.