

Early 19th century German porcelain cabinet plate

£15

REF: 5514

Height: 3 cm (1.2")

Diameter: 23 cm (9.1")

Description

An early 19th century German porcelain cabinet plate hand painted with a border of roses, circa 1820.

Cabinet plates are decorative porcelain plates often displayed in cabinetry or on walls. Originating in the 18th and 19th centuries, these plates feature intricate designs and were used to showcase fine china collections. They reflect the craftsmanship and aesthetic values of their time, enhancing interior decor.