Description

René Charles Massé 1855-1913 French porcelain blanc de chine figural group entitle 'Play'. Signed. Circa 1880.

René Charles Massé was a French sculptor and medalist active during the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Known for his finely detailed works, he specialised in creating portrait medallions and small-scale sculptures.

Massé's craftsmanship often reflected the classical influences of his time, with a focus on realism and elegance. He gained recognition for his ability to capture lifelike expressions and intricate details in his works. While not as widely known today, his contributions enriched the tradition of French decorative arts.
