Description

A bamboo 'tipple stick' walking cane with metal grip having a threaded cap housing a secret compartment. Unfortunately the flask to contain the 'tipple' is missing so it's really a tipple stick without the tipple.

If you enjoyed a little tipple before you attended a gathering you were not keen on attending, the tipple stick provided you with a covert way of increasing the enjoyment. Designed with a hidden compartment in their shaft that can be used to hide a favourite tipple, these sticks were perfect for those who enjoyed a drink
