

Tapio Wirkkala signed glass dish

Sold

REF: 6791

Height: 5 cm (2")

Diameter: 12 cm (4.7")

Description

Signed and dated art glass dish by renowned Finish designer Tapio Wirkkala (1915-1985)

Tapio Wirkkala (1915-1985) was a pioneering Finnish designer and sculptor known for his influential work in glass, ceramics, and industrial design. A central figure in modern Scandinavian design, he combined functionality with organic forms inspired by nature.

His iconic pieces include the Ultima Thule glassware for Iittala and the Finlandia vodka bottle. Wirkkala's versatility spanned from delicate art objects to mass-produced items, earning international acclaim and numerous awards. He embraced Finnish traditions while pushing the boundaries of design innovation.

His legacy continues to shape contemporary aesthetics, embodying simplicity, elegance, and a deep respect for materials and craftsmanship.