

Three 19th century Chinese carved rock crystal figures

Sold

Description

Three 19th century Chinese carved rock crystal figures of deities, from the Captain Walter Herbert Adgey-Edgar collection.

Captain Walter Herbert Adgey-Edgar's Asian art collection was renowned for its diversity and quality, and featured exquisite pieces from China, Japan, and Southeast Asia. His collection included rare ceramics, intricate textiles, and detailed carvings, reflecting his deep appreciation for Asian cultures and his keen eye for artistry and craftsmanship.