Description

1940s French 18ct yellow gold retro ring with old mine cut diamond, approximately 1 ct.

The Old Mine Cut, prevalent from the 18th to early 20th centuries, is a historic diamond cut known for its antique charm. Originating before the modern brilliant cut, it features a round, cushion-like shape with fewer facets, emphasising a softer sparkle. This cut reflects early diamond-cutting techniques and craftsmanship.
