

Single strand of jadeite beads

£245

Description

A single strand of uniform jadeite beads with an art deco three stone coloured jadeite clasp, circa 1920

Jadeite is a rare, highly valued form of jade, prized for its vibrant colours ranging from deep green to lavender, white, and orange. Often used in fine jewellery and carvings, jadeite is revered in many cultures, especially in East Asia, for its beauty, durability, and symbolic meanings of prosperity and protection.