

Luc Lanel for Chrisophle table centrepiece for the SS Normandie

Sold

REF: 5611

Height: 11 cm (4.3")

Diameter: 35 cm (13.8")

Description

Luc Lanel for Chrisophe table centrepiece designed and made for the SS Normandie. The finest example of art deco design.

The SS Normandie, launched in 1935, was a French ocean liner renowned for its luxury, speed, and Art Deco design. As one of the largest and most opulent ships of its time, it symbolised the height of transatlantic travel before World War II. The Normandie remains a legendary icon of maritime elegance.