

Early lady's Rolex Prima wrist watch

£495

Description

An early lady's Rolex Prima wrist watch with engine turned silver dial in an octagonal 9ct gold Rolex case, dated 1919. On a leather strap.

Did you know that Rolex started life in London? It was founded by Hans Wilsdorf and Alfred Davis in 1905, and began as Wilsdorf & Davis. Renamed Rolex in 1908, the brand quickly established a reputation for precision and innovation. In 1926, Rolex introduced the Oyster, the first waterproof wristwatch. The company continued to innovate with the development of automatic winding and chronograph features.