Description

Sidney Vincent North (1874-1951) oil on artists board. Mountain landscape. Initialled lower right.

Sidney Vincent North (1872-1951) was a British painter known for his landscape and architectural scenes. Born in Acton, Middlesex, he was the son of architect David Henry North. He trained under his father from 1889 to 1897 and attended the Architectural Association Schools in London.

His works, including "A Citadel at Dusk" and "Road in Suffolk," have been sold at auction, with prices ranging from £100 to over £1,000. North's art is represented in various collections, and prints of his works remain sought after by collectors and enthusiasts of British landscape and architectural painting.

From the Philip Bottomley collection.
