

Richard Ginori cache pot

£125

Description

Richard Ginori Fiesole Italian scenes porcelain cache pot.

Richard Ginori is one of Italy's most celebrated porcelain manufacturers, renowned for combining exceptional craftsmanship with elegant design.

Founded in 1735 by the Marquis Carlo Andrea Ginori near Florence, the company quickly gained an international reputation for producing fine porcelain inspired by classical art and the natural world. Over the centuries, Richard Ginori has collaborated with leading artists and designers, blending traditional techniques with contemporary creativity. Its tableware, decorative objects and giftware are prized for their refined forms, vibrant colours and intricate decoration.

Today, Richard Ginori remains a symbol of Italian luxury, artistry and timeless quality, admired by collectors worldwide.