

19th century Baule Goli mask - serenity, Ivory Coast.

Sold

Description

19th century Goli Serenity mask from the Baule people of the Ivory Coast.

The Goli Serenity mask, created by the Baule people of Côte d'Ivoire, embodies calm and wisdom. Characterized by its refined, serene expression and elegant details, this mask is used in traditional dances and ceremonies to represent ancestral spirits or deities. Its craftsmanship reflects the Baule's rich cultural and spiritual heritage.

This is one of part of a collection purchased from the estate of a collector of original tribal artefacts.