

A rare set of Steiff skittles, circa 1904

£2,450

REF: 5537

Height: 20 cm (7.9")

Diameter: 8 cm (3.1")

Description

A rare set of Steiff burlap and treen skittles in the form of dogs with the king in royal robes, circa 1900. Too precious to be bowled over now.

Founded in 1880 by Margarete Steiff in Germany, Steiff is renowned for pioneering the plush toy industry. Initially creating felt animals, the company introduced the first "teddy bear" in 1902, revolutionising the market. Steiff's commitment to quality and innovation established it as a leading name in collectible stuffed animals.