

Nigerian Hausa woven rush basket

£145

REF: 5281

Height: 40 cm (15.7")

Diameter: 50 cm (19.7")

Description

Nigerian tribal Hausa woven rush basket and lid, circa 1910.

In lovely condition although the colours are now a little faded on the outside.

This would make a perfect log or laundry basket. Actually it'd a perfect basket for anything.

Hausa tribal baskets, crafted by the Hausa people of West Africa, are known for their intricate weaving and vibrant patterns. Made from natural materials like straw and palm leaves, these baskets serve both functional and decorative purposes. Their designs reflect Hausa cultural traditions, showcasing skilled craftsmanship and a rich artistic heritage.
