

Pair of large 19th century French plaster wall brackets

£475

Description

Pair of large 19th century French plaster wall brackets.

Plaster wall brackets are decorative supports typically mounted on walls to hold shelves or display items. Originating in the 18th and 19th centuries, they feature intricate designs and ornate craftsmanship, often resembling classical motifs like Corinthian columns or scrolls. These brackets add architectural charm and elegance to interiors.