Description

Jennes & Bettridge of London papier-mâché painted side chair with mother of pearl inlay and cane seat, circa 1850.

Jennes & Bettridge were a notable English firm founded in 181 who specialised in producing high-quality papier-mâché and lacquered goods. Renowned for their craftsmanship and attention to detail, the company created decorative items such as trays, boxes, and furniture, often featuring intricate designs and vibrant colours. Their work epitomised early 19th-century luxury and design excellence.
