

1920s silver and crystal chain

£120

Description

A long 1920s silver and crystal opera length necklace.

Opera length necklaces are elegant and versatile jewellery pieces, typically measuring between 26 to 36 inches long. Their dramatic length allows them to be worn as a single strand for a sophisticated look or doubled for a layered style.

Originally popularised in the early 20th century, opera length necklaces were often paired with formal evening wear. Today, they remain a timeless accessory that complements both casual and dressy outfits. Whether adorned with pearls, beads, or gemstones, these necklaces add a graceful touch of drama and elongation to the neckline, making them a favourite for those seeking classic, refined glamour.