

19th century Flemish gesso rococo wall mirror

Sold

Description

19th century Flemish painted gesso wall mirror in ornate rococo style.

Rococo style, emerging in early 18th-century France, is characterised by its ornate, playful, and elegant design. Featuring intricate details, asymmetry, and light pastel colours, it often includes motifs like shells, flowers, and scrolls. Rococo flourished in interior design, furniture, and art, embodying a whimsical, decorative aesthetic that contrasts with the grandeur of Baroque.